"Adjutant-General." "Adjutant-General."
In compliance with this order, the corps of cadets will leave Lexington over the Baltimore and Ohio some time during the morning of December 28 and will participate in the ceremonies which have been planned for Mr. Wilson's homecoming. There has been some talk of the V. M. I. cadets acting as the President's personal escort at the inauguration ceremonies in the spring.

In connection with the prospective visit of the V. M. I. corps to Staunten and to Washington in March, it is of interest to recall some of the trips taken by this famous military organ-taken by this famous military organ-ization during the past.

It was early in the fall of 1852, John Brown had been giving much trouble, inciting the slaves to revolt against their masters. It had finally against their masters. He had finally been captured after a hot fight in a roundhouse, had been sentenced to death and had been confined in fall awaiting execution. Governor Wire, the grandfather of the present com-morning. Deliberations by the jury begain last night. Hair, who had for five years been small properties at the office with Thompson, had received a note from his superior containing his dismissal, just previous to the milling. Thompson visited the Hisir home in response to a request from the discharged employe. A few minutes after his entrance to the Blair home he was shot and killed. There were no eye-witnesses to the killing.
